

HYPACK® 2016 IS RELEASED!

After a few weeks of final adjustments, we are pleased to announce the release of HYPACK® 2016. The new release of the HYPACK® 2016 software offers users cutting-edge technology that further aids them in attaining their required objectives. We are very excited about this new version!

Some of the new features in HYPACK® 2016 include: High-density laser data acquisition, Multi-detect multibeam support, Multi-day acquisition and processing, Post-processed positioning (PPK) in HYSCAN, SBET editing tool, many new exported reports to PDF, Support 4-channel magnetometers, Dual head Water Column logging, Sound velocity interpolation by position in MBMAX, TIN MODEL volumes features, CastAway CTD probe into HYSWEEP® survey and the Sound Velocity program, new Marine Search software package and much more!

To learn the latest features in HYPACK® 2016 you can view the Ustream videos listed on our home page at www.hypack.com.

As a leader in the hydrographic and dredging industry, we are committed to providing our customers with the most innovative features and tools. This gives our users a considerable advantage in the market, allowing them to take advantage of new equipment and technology as soon as it becomes available.

For more information and to download HYPACK® 2016 visit our website www.hypack.com

